UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN	District of	MICHIGAN
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
V.	ORDE	R OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
DONALD EUGENE HARDY,	Case	4:08-CR-20047
Defendant	_
the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.		has been held. I conclude that the following facts require
(1) The defendant is charged with an offense described or local offense that would have been a federal offen a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 31 an offense for which the maximum sentence is an offense for which a maximum term of impris	nse if a circumstance givin 156(a)(4). life imprisonment or death	and has been convicted of a federal offense stat g rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C.
§ 3142(f)(1)(A)-©, or comparable state or local ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed sin for the offense described in finding (1).	while the defendant was o
(4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
Alternative Findings (A)
(1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. § 924©.
(2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
Alternative Findings (B)
X (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.(2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
Part II—Writte	en Statement of Reason	s for Detention
I find that the credible testimony and information submederance of the evidence that	itted at the hearing establis	thes by X clear and convincing evidence a prepondetention is appropriate in this matter. The information presented at the hearing reveals that the defendant is a lifelong resident of the state of Michigan, although it appears he has lived a transient lifestyle. He is currently un-employed. The report of the Pretrial Officer also indicates a history of substance abuse by the defendant. Further information reveals that the defendant has a lengthy criminal history dating back to 1990. The record also indicates that he has failed to abide by the terms of either his probation or parole regarding a number of these offenses. 18 U.S.C. 3142(g) outlines factors to be considered in determining the release of an individual. Among these factors are the nature of the offense and the history and characteristics of the person, including past conduct. Based upon the information presented at the hearing, considering the charges pending, the defendant's previous criminal history, his lack of permanent residence and his involvement with illegal substances, I find that the defendant poses
